

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the manipulation
of societal thinking
by a partisan
corporation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we are in danger of losing our democracy that is based on the free
flow of information.

The discussion on television should be on matters that directly affect the nation and not a partisan attack on a
war hero.

It is up to the FCC
to stand guard over
the manipulation of
the airwaves to advance a narrow
political viewpoint.
If the FCC does not intervene in this matter than it too
will become complicit in the destruction of our democracy. I ask that you stop this travesty of public
manipulation.
